

ABOUT COPENHAGEN ECONOMICS

Copenhagen Economics is a specialised economics consultancy and leader in the Nordic region. Our economists provide advice and analyses in the fields of competition, regulation, international trade and impact assessment.

We solve complex problems for private- and public-sector clients in the areas of:

We provide hard facts and clear stories, enabling our clients and their stakeholders to make superior decisions based on sound analysis.

We advise companies, authorities and policy makers when market meets regulation and conflicts arise. We help our private sector clients handle conflict cases and guide them on how to prosper through regulatory management. We help our public sector clients evaluate and devise new regulation. We support the judiciary process as court-appointed or party-appointed experts.

In particular, in the area of digital economy, our company has worked on a broad set of research questions of socio-economic importance for a range of public authorities, industry associations, as well as firms across the digital space – starting with a seminal contribution on the value of the EU Digital Single Market nearly a decade ago.

Founded in 2000, the firm is based in offices in Brussels, Copenhagen, Helsinki and Stockholm and
